

VDL SEATING SYSTEMS

bucket seat

The bucket seat from VDL Seating Systems is a robust and compact seat, which at the same time offers great comfort. Due to the different mounting methods, there is a suitable solution for every situation. The bucket seat is a basic model in the range of VDL Seating Systems

The bucket seat developed by VDL Seating Systems is particularly strong due to its wide ribs in the back.

The cutout at the back provides more space in the aisle and for a strong backrest.

The chair is ergonomically designed results in seating comfort, even with a longer seat.

The bucket seat from VDL Seating Systems is easy to assemble.

The chair is equipped of two mounting holes that are covered with a cap after mounting.

In the middle drainage of water, so that no water remains on the seat when it rains.

It is possible to process i.e. V2 or CRIB5 fire retardant in the material.

By default, the chair supplied with a UV stabilizer to counteract the influence of the sun.

The chairs have been tested through various strength analyses, including according to the standards NENEN-13200-4 and EN12727.

